Teddy Roosevelt

Theodore 'Teddy' Roosevelt was the 26th president of the United States, from 1901 to 1909. He was also governor of the state of New York, an explorer, naturalist, military leader and historian. Teddy Roosevelt was awarded the Nobel Prize in Peace. He was the first U.S. president to travel in an automobile, an airplane, and a submarine.